

We are looking for an intern!

Job Description

- Communication support on R&D projects between German and Korean researchers
- Market research on various R&D market information
- Support the team with creating and maintaining market intelligence (e.g. homepage, information materials, PPT, etc.)
- Support the team in organization and performance of German delegation trips, meetings and fair participation
- Responsible for promoting and organizing an internship program for Fraunhofer Institutes in Germany (match-making Korean students to Fraunhofer Institutes)
- Support the team with daily tasks

Requirements

- Good communication (and negotiation) skills
- Language:
 - Korean - Native
 - English - Fluent
 - German is a plus but not a must.
- Highly interested in technology, innovation and Korean industries in general
- Good research skills
- Good MS office (especially PPT and Word) skills

Working Condition

- Working time
 - For 1 year from middle of October, 2017
 - 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. (adjustable)
 - 4 days in a week
- Salary: 1,300,000 KRW per month
- Working site: Jamsil, Seoul

About Fraunhofer

Fraunhofer is a German government funded research organization and the largest applied research organization in Europe. Fraunhofer covers various areas of research, for example, ICT, energy, production, microelectronics, materials and components, light and surface, life science and more.

Fraunhofer Representative Office Korea officially represents Fraunhofer in Korea and develop R&D cooperation opportunities by engaging with Korean industry, research institution, university and government.

Web site:

- Fraunhofer in Germany: www.fraunhofer.com
- Fraunhofer Representative Office Korea: www.fraunhofer.kr

Contact

Please send your CV to info@fraunhofer.kr by Sept. 22.