

2025 SHANUM Multicultural Society of Social Responsibility Volunteer Recruitment

Founded in 2019, the Seoul National University SHANUM Multicultural Society of Social Responsibility is a program aimed at fostering socially responsible leaders by promoting a spirit of sharing and social responsibility among members of the university, regardless of their Korean language proficiency. Through collaboration with local communities, the program engages in various social contribution activities to enhance mutual understanding and achieve cultural sustainability.

We are now recruiting members for the 8th batch (2025) to participate in social contribution activities alongside fellow members and local communities. We look forward to your active participation.
